

More Sun, Less Stress
Sun Tran Announces New Express Route from Marana

More Sun means less stress for commuters who live on the northwest side. Effective Monday, May 21, Sun Tran offers a new commute alternative during the I-10 Widening Project. Route 391, the Marana Express, will provide weekday rush-hour service from Cortaro Road and I-10 into downtown Tucson.

For passenger convenience, a Park and Ride lot has been established at Arizona Pavilions, off Cortaro Road west of I-10. Buses will serve the following express stops in the downtown area each weekday morning:

- Congress Street at Central Avenue
- Congress Street at the U.S. Courthouse
- Broadway at Church Avenue
- Broadway at 6th Avenue
- Broadway at 4th Avenue

Route 391 will pick up passengers weekday afternoons at the following stops:

- Congress Street at 6th Avenue (south side of the Ronstadt Transit Center)
- Congress Street at Church Avenue
- Congress Street at Granada Avenue

Funding of Sun Tran's Route 391 is provided by the Arizona Department of Transportation (ADOT), and accelerates the launch of the Marana Express nearly two years earlier than originally planned by the Regional Transportation Authority.
